In fact, 96% of people weren't aware of the benefits that CBD can have on your sex life and 53% didn't know that it could be used for sex at all. A recent survey of 1,000 people by Remedy Review, a website dedicated to natural health, found that 68% of those who tried a CBD product in the bedroom found that it improved their sex life. The survey – and experts – point to major ways CBD can help improve your sex life.
